

Danielle Segal, originally from Portland, Maine, attended St. Michael's College in Colchester, Vermont where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. In 2016, she received her MSW and her MBA from Simmons College in Boston, Massachusetts. She has experience working with the unhoused population and youth population. In 2017, she moved to Truckee where she was the manager of the residential program for Sierra Community House. Since 2020, Danielle has been the program manager for North Tahoe-Truckee Homeless Services. She also organizes Hike for Hope, an annual event to bring suicide prevention and awareness to the Tahoe community. In her free time, Danielle enjoys yoga, hiking, skiing, going to concerts, reading, traveling, and spending time with her family and friends.